New Book Release of The Orphan Boy, A Love Affair with Mining to benefit local scholarship fund

Denver, CO -June 24, 2007: To celebrate the successful publication of its newest book, The Orphan Boy, A Love Affair with Mining, BurgYoung Publishing, LLC, is helping sponsor the West Metro Sales Professionals annual golf tournament. The proceeds of this tournament go to the West Metro Sales Pros scholarship fund. College scholarships are given by West Metro Sales Pros to deserving local high school seniors who demonstrate excellence in sales, marketing and entrepreneurship courses.

Two annual scholarships were awarded at the West Metro Sales Pros annual meeting on May 15, 2007. The scholarship awards were in the amount of $1,200 and $800 respectively.

The author of The Orphan Boy, A Love Affair with Mining, H. Court Young, is a partner in BurgYoung Publishing and a member of West Metro Sales Pros. About West Metro Sales Pros, Young notes, "West Metro Sales Pros is an excellent group to be involved with as a small business because it encourages and supports entrepreneurship. They consistently have excellent speakers discussing topics of interest to small business." Young further notes, "I would encourage any small or home based business in the western metro area, Lakewood, Golden, Arvada etc. to come to a meeting and check us out." Meetings are held on Mondays at 11:30 am at the Great Wall Restaurant at 3215 South Wadsworth Blvd.

The annual West Metro Sales Pros Golf Tournament is being held at Indian Tree Golf Course, 7555 Wadsworth Blvd., on Saturday, June 30, 2007. Tee off is at 10:00 am. For additional information about the tournament, contact Ray Mulay – 303-425-6223.
